

MetalTek International

Making A Lasting Difference

Manufacturing critical metal components for demanding applications that power, protect, and connect our world

- Unmatched, diverse metal casting capabilities
 - Carondelet: sand casting
 - Sandusky International: centrifugal casting
 - Wisconsin Centrifugal: centrifugal casting
 - Wisconsin Investcast: investment casting
- Over 100 metallurgists and engineers provide integrated alloy and manufacturing expertise
 - 450+ ferrous and non-ferrous alloys
 - In-house heat treat, machining, fabrication, and quality assurance
- Expertise in defense, aerospace, petrochemical, process equipment, and other customer markets

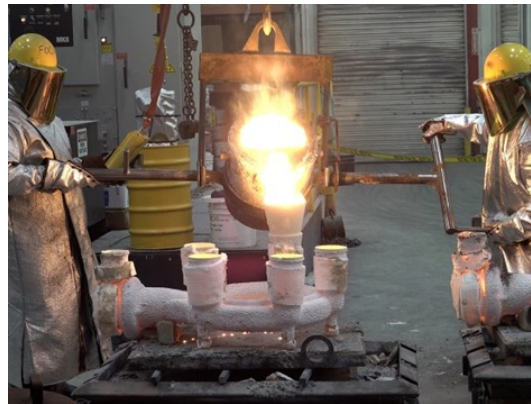

Available Positions

Product Engineer (Wisconsin Investcast): Provide product engineering and manufacturing process support.

Quality Engineer (Sandusky International): Develop and implement systems and procedures for process and product quality control.

Rotational Engineer: Spend 9 months at each division acquiring hands-on, technical experience in process engineering, metallurgy, and other disciplines.

Operations Leadership Development Program (Wisconsin Centrifugal): Spend a total of 2.5 years in a Management Development Rotation that includes assignments in a variety of manufacturing and support departments.

Visit MetalTek.com/Careers for more information